AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. MAHONEY of Florida) at noon.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

Lord God, America returns to another workweek while some coworkers and family members are away on summer vacation.

May this be a lesson to us all; that life must be lived with balance and none of us is irreplaceable in Your divine plan.

Inspire Members of the House of Representatives, Lord, to make the best use of the time given them. In the midst of many duties, let family needs be attended to. May the productive work of Congress stabilize this Nation and create a better social order, so that all Your people may enjoy responsible freedom and equal justice under the law.

To You be praise and glory now and forever. Amen.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communications from the President of the United States:

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, July 21, 2007.

Hon. NANCY PELOSI,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MADAME SPEAKER: This morning I will undergo a routine medical procedure requiring sedation. In view of present circumstances, I have determined to transfer temporarily my Constitutional powers and duties to the Vice President during the brief period of the procedure and recovery.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of the Twenty-Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, this letter shall constitute my written declaration that I am unable to discharge the constitutional powers and duties of the office of the President of the United States. Pursuant to Section 3, the Vice President shall discharge those powers and duties as Acting President until I transmit to you a written declaration that I am able to resume the discharge of those powers and duties.

Sincerely,

GEORGE BUSH.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, July 21, 2007.

Hon. NANCY PELOSI,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MADAME SPEAKER: In accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of the Twenty-Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, this letter shall constitute my written declaration that I am presently able to resume the discharge of the Constitutional powers and duties of the office of the President of the United States. With the transmittal of this letter, I am resuming those powers and duties effective immediately.

THE STOCK MARKET SOARS, AMERICA'S ECONOMY IS BOOMING

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, all Americans should be grateful that the New York Stock Exchange closed at a record high of 14,000 last Thursday. Students benefit as college endowments grew, reducing tuition costs. Retirees benefit as retirement accounts appreciated. And with increased liquidity, jobs are created for small businesses. The stock market in 5 years has soared 91 percent from the decline caused by the 9/11 terrorist attacks.

More than 2 million jobs have been created in the last year, and 8.2 million jobs have been created since the tax relief was initiated in June 2003. This has led to an unemployment rate lower than the average of the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. There is record high homeowner-ship.

The Republican tax reductions are helping workers. I urge my colleagues to act immediately to make the tax cuts permanent so American workers, not the Federal Government, can continue to decide how to spend their hard-earned money. This proves the point of Jerry Bellune, editor of the Lexington County Chronicle, that the earnings of America's workers belong to the people and are not a handout from the government.

In conclusion, God bless our troops, and we will never forget September 11th.

BRITISH PETROLEUM POLLUTING LAKE MICHIGAN

(Mr. KIRK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KIRK. Mr. Speaker, the Great Lakes are the source of our drinking water for 30 million Americans, and the Congress has enacted new laws to protect the Great Lakes ecosystem, including the Great Lakes Legacy Act and the Regional Collaboration.

This is why we were surprised, no, stunned, when British Petroleum applied for the rights to increase its pollution of Lake Michigan. A 35-percent increase in ammonia dumping, a 54-percent increase in the dumping of suspended solids.

BP is one of the most profitable companies on Earth. Their plans include a $3 billion upgrade to the facility, but they presented excuses from their own paid consultant that they had to increase their pollution of the lake.

Now, tomorrow the Congress will take up a resolution condemning BP and the actions of the State of Indiana that approved this pollution.

BP is a company spending millions to brand itself as a friend of the environment, but we know what BP stands for, "Bad Polluter."
